

Ghent University Short-term Visiting Fellowship Program

Ghent University would like to inform you about the Russia Platform Short-term Visiting Fellowship Program. There is an open call with deadline 28/11/2018. The Russia Platform is awarding 5 scholarships to visiting fellows from a Russian higher education or research institution.

The fellowships are geared towards scholars who have a PhD degree and aim to support a research stay of minimum 1 month at Ghent University in 2019. The call is open to all disciplines. Applicants have to submit a brief application form with CV and need to have the endorsement of a UGent promotor. The grant is 2000 € and is aimed to cover (part of the) travel costs, housing, and living costs.

More information can be found in the attachment